HUGH BOGGS WILL BE LAID TO REST FRIDAY HOPE NOW HELD CLAYTON BOGGS WILL RECOVER

Funeral services for Hugh Boggs, who was shot to death yesterday at the south landing of the Bee Line ferry, will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of his brother, Gordon Boggs, Johnston street, interment being made at city cemetery. Dr. J. A. Duncan, pastor of the First Methodist church, will conduct the services.

Clayton Boggs, a brother of Hugh Boggs, who was shot and seriously wounded at the time of the tragedy, still was in a dangerous condition at the Benevolent hospital, but members of the family announced this afternoon that hope was entertained for his recovery. Mr. Boggs is of a rugged constitution and his reserve strength, it was hoped, would aid materially in restoring him to health.

Mr. Boggs was shot twice, but was declared to have been able to aid in placing his dying brother, Hugh, in the automobile which took both men to the hospital immediately after the shooting. Mr. Boggs was expected to reach the crisis in three days' time.

Put Under Bond
J. M. Moss and J. T. Moss, brothers, who surrendered immediately after the affray at the ferry landing, and were placed in the Morgan County jail remained there during the day.

Roy Lop, a traveling salesman, whose home is here, was placed under $500 bond this morning on a warrant, charging manslaughter. Mr. Lop was said to have been a passenger on the ferry boat, enroute to Athens, at the time of the tragedy.

Orders were issued this morning by Judge W. T. Lowe, for the immediate appearance before him of the Moss brothers. The prisoners were brought to the courtroom from the county jail a few moments after 10 o'clock, but were returned to the jail without a hearing, in order that they might have an opportunity to retain counsel.

Women Smokers Blamed for Heavy Toll Taken By Fire

(Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Women smokers are suspected of having caused the heavy increase in loss by fire, due to "matches and smoking" in the United States during the last year, reported by the National Board of Fire Underwriters today to have amounted to $25,882,033, compared with $16,435,562 in 1918. The total loss by fire in the country for the year, according to the report was $495,000,000.

Losses resulting from various other causes also increased with the exception of those due to mis-use of electricity, which totalled $12,712,209, a little more than half the figure five years ago.

BUICKS BROUGHT BY "TRAINLOAD"

No wonder they crowded around in large numbers to see the big Louisville and Nashville steam crane unload the trainload of Buick automobiles at the Malone Motor Co. today.

It was an unusual sight, we rarely if ever seen in cities of this size—a train load of Buick automobiles shipped to a single dealer. The Malone Motor Co. always do things in the big way and this time bigger than ever.

On arrival direct from the factory the train was switched to Malone's private tracks and the work of unloading was begun.

It looked as though the circus had come to town, minus the elephant and clown, it was an unusual and interesting sight and attracted attention of scores of people.

"Flapper" Legislator Asks Rigid Laws

Miss Myrtle Caine

Miss Myrtle Caine, "Flapper" Legislator, of St. Paul, Minnesota, with other women members of the Legislature is planning a campaign for the passage of bills and amendments, providing for the granting of full rights and property privileges to illegitimate children. She also demands that children born out of wedlocks shall have the right to the father's name and estate, equally with legitimate offspring. The measures are said to be the most revolutionary ever offered before an American lawmaking body and are believed to be strongly backed by public sentiment.

SUPREME COURT TO DECIDE ON PORT ACT

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Feb. 1.—The supreme court of Alabama will determine without delay whether or not the state may issue bonds for the development of the seaport at Mobile if the Senate passes the Ware bill, which was passed by the House by a vote of seventy-four to fifteen Wednesday. The bill provides that the governor may request the supreme court for an advisory opinion regarding the validity of any constitutional amendment already adopted and that the legislature may certify any amendment proposed to the supreme court for an advisory opinion.

Representative Lee Long of Butler opposed the bill, contending that it was not fair to the court to force it to render an opinion before the case is brought before it in the regular way. Representative Ware, author of the original bill, and Representative Cunningham, of Mobile made addresses in support of the measure.

No real opposition was shown to the proposal at any time. Representative St. John offered an amendment, which was adopted, striking out that portion of the bill which provides that opinions could be requested of the supreme court "on solemn occasions." Mr. St. John said nobody knew what is a "solemn occasion."

Coal Shipments To Germans Halt

WORK BEGUN ON OFFICIALS RAID D. H. S. BUILDING ANOTHER STILL

Decatur's New School Will Be Rushed To Completion Now

SHORT PROGRAM PRECEDES WORK

Passage of Bond Issue Was Celebrated In Novel Manner

Yesterday was a gala day in the educational history of Decatur. It was in a way a celebration of the bond election of the day before, and in a special way the official beginning of work upon the new high school.

A start was being made on the long hoped for building, enough money to complete it was in sight, those present were feeling good.

The entire school and a considerable number of citizens assembled at the new grounds at one o'clock for the exercises. It was a short program, but full of snap and variety and moved along rapidly.

Supt. W. W. Benson acted as master of ceremonies and the following program was rendered:

Scripture Reading—Rev. J. D. Wallace.

Prayer—Dr. C. C. Davison.

Original Poem—"New High School"—Marjorie Pointer.

Song—"New High School"—By the school.

Brief Address—Dr. J. E. Duncan.

Breaking ground.

Mayor James A. Nelson, representing the city government.

D. D. McGehee, of the Board of Education.

Miss Florence Tillman, of the Faculty.

Mrs. W. T. Giles and Mrs. J. L. Ramage, President and Past President of the P. T. A.

Eleanor Ramage and Ferrow Himes of the Student Body.

T. M. Dix, Grand Chancellor—"The Spirit of Fraternity."

Clyde Hendrix, President of Bankers Association—"Money for the Schools."

Mrs. W. C. Bailey, Twin City Federation of Womens Clubs.

The hit of the day apparently was Miss Marjorie Pointer's poem, and the enthusiastic singing of it by the schools. They sang these words to the tune of America.

This spot we'll ne'er forget,
Where all of us have met
To break the ground
A school for you and me,
By the Old Tennessee,
And what a joy will be—
Our new high school.

We'll do the best we can
To keep it spick and span—
Our new high school.
We'll ne'er regret the day
When all of us can say,
We had some part to play
In our new high school.

Our banners we will raise
And all of us will praise
Our new high school
We'll wave our colors bold,
The dear old black and gold,
When all of us enroll
In our new high school.

Mrs. W. C. Bailey later gave expression to these sentiments:

"I come before you in the name of the club women of the Twin Cities and as I help to break the ground for the beginning of this great forward effort on the part of Decatur and her progressive people, I wish for the management of this great enterprise success; for the teachers who shall serve in the new school, a big sense of the needs of the pupils and an ambitious desire to serve them well and faithfully; and for the school children, who in the future shall reap the full benefit of the sacrifices and labor that have made this dream come true, I wish a deep appreciation of all that has been done for their highest education and a realization of the necessity of their making good."

"We believe in you, boys and girls, and we pray for richest blessings to attend your future school life."

High Water and Shots Fail to Halt Dry Crew In Search

NEGRO IS TAKEN; STILL DESTROYED

Mash Buried In Order To Ferment Corn In Three Days

Officers G. A. Campbell and W. A. Wright are back in Morgan after an exciting but successful excursion into the boundaries of Limestone county—Slough Beat, where they captured a still, twenty barrels of whiskey-mash, destroyed dozens of jug-fulls of real whiskey, took two shot-guns and shells to fit them, loaded with No. 6 shot, a boys coat, a French harp, a new pipe, large supplies of beans, peas, sugar and other food-stuffs, some "best run of the still" sweetened to taste, a gray squirrel just killed and ready for the pot, six silver spoons, and other dining table ware, and last of all a negro not in the "wood-pile," but in the still house.

High Water No Bar.

The accomplishment of Messrs Campbell and Wright came after they had waded the over-flow waters of the Tennessee river waist deep, and had been shot at from the doomed still twice, the officers returned the fire.

About the time the gun shots of the officers reached the still house, 150 yards from where they stood in the water, the "still" people fled to the tall timber, firing as they went. The officers kept up firing also. The officers kept up firing until the guns of the "enemy" were silent. They then advanced and first of all made a prisoner of a negro, within the still, who is thought to have covered the retreat of the "stillers", and to have fired at least some of the shots at the prohibition officers.

Mash Was Buried.

In order to keep heat around the whiskey mash, twenty barrels of it were buried deep in stable manure and cotton seed, which warm blanket is said to ferment mash in three days time. Mr. Campbell, being a general prohibition officer, he had and used his authority to destroy everything found at the still. Every jug found had whiskey in it.

The copper cap or "steam dome" at the Slough still was so hot when the officers arrived it could not be removed, so Campbell and Wright had the distinction of taking what has long been sought by other officers, according to Ex-Sheriff May, who was at the court house this morning. The "drop-tank" into which the distilled spirits are made to drop from the still worm, was also captured and is now in exhibit at the court house.

In addition to the loss of a valuation placed at $25,000 the still operators had what appeared to have been a happy home life, and remunerative employment interfered with. Every thing appeared neat, for a still and although the "sweetened liquor" was not in cut glass, it doubtless had the kick.

Allredge, of Nashville, Tenn., on the subject—"The Big Business of the Kingdom" at the Decatur Baptist church Friday night at 7:30 p. m. There will be no admission charged and no collection taken. The lecture is free to all. This is the first of a series to be given by this class and others will be announced later. STRANGER DUMPS BODY OF BOY ON WALK AT FEET OF FATHER AND SPEEDS AWAY IN MOTOR CAR

(By Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Feb. 1.

Police started a search today for an unidentified man, who drove an automobile before the residence of J. A. Horner early today and threw the body of his son, Revere, 24, on the sidewalk, after summoning the father from his bed.

The car then sped away before the father could question its occupants. Horner told the police he was aroused by a heavy knock on his front door. When he answered it he saw the car, with curtains on, standing at the curb. He said he called to its driver and asked him if he had knocked on the door.

"I've got your son here," he quoted a voice from the car as replying. "Send him in here. I want to talk to him," Horner replied, according to his account to the police.

"I can't," the man in the car said. "He's dead," and with these words he threw open the door and pushed the body to the sidewalk.

"I've had him in here since Sunday," the visitor added as he threw the car in gear and moved away, Horner told the police.

Horner said he ran to the sidewalk and carried his son's body into the house.

Horner said the boy had been in St. Joseph, Mo., about a year and police expressed the belief that the body had been brought here overland.

Investigation revealed that Horner had been shot once through the stomach and that he had probably lived sometime after being wounded. There were no other marks of violence.

Glenn R. Horner, state senator from Okmulgee, an uncle of the slain boy, issued a statement today that he met death in a "high jacking deal."

"I have information that the machine the man drove off after throwing the body out, was my nephew's own car, driven here from St. Joseph, Mo.," Senator Horner said.

RUMOR OF WAR AMUSES HUNS

Reported Break Among Allies Causes Much Rejoicing In Ruhr

TENSION GREAT IN CITY OF ESSEN

Lausanne Situation Has Few Bright Sides Now Reports Indicate

(Associated Press)

DUESSELDORF, Feb. 1.—The order prohibiting the export of coal from the Ruhr to unoccupied Germany has been enforced since midnight. There had been no reaction from the Germans up to early this morning.

The French announced that should Germany fail to come to terms the interdiction upon exports will be extended to steel, iron and other manufactured articles now permitted to enter Germany.

The general railroad strike is effective at Mayence and Cologne and throughout the entire Ruhr valley. One train daily, worked by French crews, is dispatched daily from Paris to Mayence; another from Paris to Cologne and a third from Paris to Coblenz and return.

At Ingersheim yesterday the Paris-Mayence express was switched off onto a blind siding, but the engineer applied the brakes in time to avert a catastrophe.

LAUSANNE, Feb. 1.—The Russian declaration at the Near East conference announced at the meeting of the Straits commission today that Russia would not sign the convention providing for control of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—The British government today received a note from France, the substance of which is that France reserves the right to undertake separate negotiations with Turkey in the event of the Lausanne conference failing.

The opinion was expressed in official circles here that the events in the past 24 hours appear to have put the French note in abeyance. The news received from Lausanne states there is great hope the conference will prove successful.

BERLIN, Feb. 1.—Chancellor Cuno, discussing the Ruhr occupation with a dozen American correspondents, summed up the situation by declaring:

"It's bad business. Bad for the creditor, but worse for the debtor, as the former gets nothing, while the latter becomes systematically ruined. This elaborate military organization will consume more money than France claims is due her through the alleged default."

LONDON, Feb. 1.—The tension between the allied troops and the population of Essen is noticeably more marked and is causing concern, says a Reuter's dispatch from the occupied city. The feeling has been embittered by the numerous deportations, which are reliably estimated to exceed 80 in number.

ESSEN, Feb. 1.—The Ruhr forgot its own troubles upon receipt of Lausanne dispatches from German sources, announcing "the final break between England and France over the Near East question."

"Certain war between Great Britain and France" screamed the headline of one of the newspaper extracts.

"Ruhr problems nearing solution," announced another.

Great crowds gathered in front of the bulletin boards in Essen and Duesseldorf to cheer the reports from Lausanne. For the first time in three weeks there was joy in the Ruhr.

DUESSELDORF, Feb. 1.—The closing of the Dortmund gateway, the only remaining exit into unoccupied Germany was undertaken by the French early today upon receipt of instruction from Paris to complete the isolation of the Ruhr.

WEATHER.

FOR ALABAMA—Cloudy tonight and Friday; probably showers in the north portion. Cooler in north portion Friday.

WHO PAYS FOR ADVERTISING?

Not the manufacturer, for he thereby procures more business, the profits from which more than offset the advertising costs.

Not the retailer, for advertised brands sell easiest, turn quickest and therefore yield the greatest profit on the amount invested per year.

Not the person who buys the advertised article, for the cost of production has been brought down by increased business and the cost of selling has been reduced, because advertising has already practically completed the sale.

Advertising is an investment which produces returns and therefore pays for itself.

WE FAVOR ACCEPTANCE OF HENRY FORD'S BID FOR MUSCLE SHOALS.

THE FARMERS PREFER HOME-HELP TO NITRATES AT COST FROM ANY FOREIGN COUNTRY.

Economic effort should begin at home. It should not stay there and cannot stay there, for the world is a unit, so to speak, and it must progress or fall backward as a whole. But until every nation has done its utmost to succeed, it is not apt to be in a position to help other nations. The necessity of a thorough revival in industry in this country is emphasized by the failure to produce on the part of other nations, particularly those in Europe. America is faced with the stern reality, that if matters do not soon improve in Europe, we must be our own market as well as produce commodities. The secret of a good market, is a large and diversified production, therefore the thing for this nation to do is to go on producing, then when we have the goods and products, if Europe cannot buy, then we can sell to ourselves.

To what great class would the makers of manufactured products turn to get buyers? To the largest class the farming class certainly. But the farmers must be aided in all legitimate ways, to produce more of the things that other people want.

In an effort to help the farmers, they say, Senators now are proposing to have the government buy nitrates outright from Chile, and sell the nitrates when manufactured into fertilizers to the farmers at cost. Provided the Senators are sincere, until we can fix for producing fertilizers at Muscle Shoals and at other power sites in America, there should be no serious objection to aiding the farmers to produce, by furnishing them cheap nitrates from Chile or anywhere else for first and foremost our duty is to the farmers if we are to have a great and prosperous country. It is significant that spokesmen for the farmers have said they fear this move for Chilean nitrates is only a measure calculated by shrewd tricksters, to delay the acceptance of the Ford bid, and if possible to accomplish its final defeat.

The farmers evidently prefer that we begin to help them at home by utilizing our own resources, whether of men, money or water power. Rather than sending away off to some South American country. The farmers wish to be aided to where they can produce more but they wish this assistance to come from the home country first of all. It must have been like a slap in the face to those Senators who were planning to spend $10,000,000 of government money so as to sell Chilean nitrates to them at cost, when the farmers declined, a large body of them at least—with thanks, and asked how about putting Henry Ford to work on nitrate production at Muscle Shoals.

WILL THE WORLD BECOME CONSTRUCTIVE OR WILL IT FOLLOW PATH OF DESTRUCTION

Among fish, scientific workers, tells us that after the males have done their work in life, they fall to and destroy each other in deadly conflicts. There are those who teach that the earth will be depopulated and destroyed after certain accomplishments have been realized. From the state of excitement throughout the world today and from the "wars and rumors of wars" reported every few hours, it almost seems that our world is bent on self destruction. In this connection the words of Louis Pasteur, the "founder of modern medicine" as he is termed, uttered in 1888 are apropos:

"Two opposing laws," he said, "now seem to me to be contesting with one another. The one, a law of blood and death, opening at each day new methods of destroying life, compels nations always to be prepared for battle. The other is a law of peace, of labor, of health; its only aim is to deliver mankind from the enemies that assail him. The one is always seeking conquests by violence, the other the relief of mankind. One regards a single life as more important than all victories, the other slaughters hundreds of thousands."

If Pasteur were living today, and had lived through the great war, and were now witnessing a continuation of that war by his countrymen beyond the Rhine, he would doubtless give larger emphasis to his doubts as to whether destruction or construction will win in this world. In view of present conditions and certain known facts of science, to say nothing of the position of those who quote scripture to the effect that the world will go to its end by the violent route, it is not at all certain, that the forces of peace and concord will conquer among the children of men.

Frank H. Simonds, who was the outstanding war-time writer of the world, as long as the World War lasted, and who ever since has out ranked every other news writer on post war conditions is out in the recent Sunday editions, telling what he thinks about the French occupation of German territory. In the outset he states that the French literally placed a gun to the head of a delinquent debtor and told him to pay up or die. The writer claims the Germans now hope by passive resistance to finally escape paying the war indemnity claimed by France.

The French say they are now fighting what they call an "economic Verdun" the reference being to the battle for Verdun in the great war, when, according to Frenchmen, they would have defeated the Germans had not the Russians deserted the allies during the fight before Verdun.

Simonds claims that if the French can hold the Ruhr district as tenaciously as they did Verdun, they will accomplish the "economic ruin" of Germany "in no long time".

"The firmer the German resistance the more complete the paralysis," says Simonds.

The French, it is said, prefer payment from Germany rather than a ruined Germany, but Simonds adds that "nevertheless most Frenchmen would prefer to see Germany ruined rather than to witness her escape intact to face a France over-burdened by debt." It is pointed out by Simonds that whereas German guns played upon cathedrals "French artillery will play upon factories". To sum up Simonds believes that just as France has pointed the pistol to the head of Germany, she will also fire it "unless the rest of the world goes bail for German payment."

The writer speaks as if he believed it would pay the nations outside of France to guarantee the German payment rather than let the present situation reach its logical conclusion. In regard to what this country and England "might have done" Simonds says:

"I believe that if Great Britain and the United States had stood with France in the matter of reparations, instead of pursuing their own personal legitimate interests, the present crisis might have been averted. And Simonds adds:

"I believe France can ruin Germany and I believe that in doing it she will ruin herself and wreck Western Europe."

NEARLY A POEM.

A bitter night!
 Like some lost spirit's moans
 The tempest howls
 In wiled, uncanny tones.

I order coal,
 Although my heart it rends,
 And, with the dawn,
 The temperature ascends!

Some birds are evidently hard to please in this man's town.

Amos Tash says it is utterly impossible to make any kind of an old hat look foolish on a pretty girl.

SO IS CHAS. CHAPLIN'S FEET, AS ALSO ARE HIS MUSTACHE.

Some persons scratch their heads when thinking. Others just scratch their heads.

Politics is a queer animal. It comes around every two years and always finds plenty of fellows ready to play with it. It has a long, hard game for one to play, unsatisfying in the extreme. But who ever heard of anyone quitting after getting started thoroughly?

Personally, we are becoming very weary of trying to be made moral by legislative action. Thank goodness there is little present prospect of there being any reform in Heaven.

"Music may be sweet. But not so the silence that falls over a country after a political election."

A fine way to get up, is to put the alarm clock under the bed so you will have to crawl to get it.

WILLIE HITS BACK.
 Pa—Here! Willie, everybody will be calling you a little glutton. Do you know what that is?
 Willie—"I suppose it's a big glutton's boy."

Politeness consists of a man offering his seat to a lady when he gets off the car.

Now is the time of the year when dad buys an extra $20 worth of coal to keep mother's $1.00 worth of scraggly house plants from freezing.

To the telephone girl our lid we'd doff,
 And speak (with flowers) our adorations,
 Who never horned in, nor cut us off,
 In the midst of a jitney conversation.

The Leavenworth Post suggests a new child labor law that will be constitutional: "Wash your feet before going to bed." The trouble is, it would be hard to enforce.

We know a woman who has a bull dog, that growls and a furnace that smokes, but we wager that Friend Husband is still useful when she wents a fruit jar, opened.

If people took as much trouble making pleasure as they take pleasure making trouble everybody would be happy.

The only time some of us stand by the Star Spangled Banner is when it is played.

Iva Hanch says an idle rumor never spends much time in a busy man's office.

When you walk into a clean, well kept office and see picture of a mother and a baby in silver frame occupying the center space on the desk, you can bet your last dime you have a mighty decent sort of a man to talk with.

Too many people with fire insurance have that burning desire.

"Almost any one of a fellow's friends can cite him to a lot of perfectly good reasons why he has never succeeded,"—hs, Amos Tash.

Sometimes the pensive girl makes the expensive wife.

People often give three cheers for something they wouldn't give anything else for.

CITY DREAM IN FASHION.

The girl stood on the waiting block,
 Waiting for a car,
 She had no hat upon her head,
 Nothing but bobbed hair.

She had no healthy coat of tan,
 She was sickly, cold and blue,
 She was brought up in the city,
 And this is all she knew.

The price of cloth, the price of hats,
 The price of late goloshes,
 The corner where the boys all stood
 Waiting to make mashes.

She knew milk came in bottles,
 And milk came from the store,
 Also pies and vegetables
 How could she know more.

She'd never seen any pigs,
 She'd never seen a cow
 She knew meat came from Chicago
 It got there but she didn't know how.

She had no neck in her dress,
 Her little knees were bare,
 She wore silk socks and patent pumps,
 While snow was in the air.

She stood there nearly frozen,
 On her face a pleasant smile,
 She was enjoying woman's greatest happiness,
 She knew she was dressed in style.

WOMEN NEED SWAMP-ROOT

Thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, are often times symptoms of kidney trouble.

Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Get a medium or large size bottle immediately from any drug store.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper, adv.

NOTICE.

After three months delay, I have just received my commission as Justice of the Peace for Decatur. I will open my office on Bank Street in a very few days. In meantime I am ready for business at my home, corner of Church and Canal Sts. Office next door to Canal Street entrance. I take this opportunity to thank my constituents for their liberal support in the election. The cause of this delay is not worth mentioning. It only consumed valuable time to overcome false statements. I am supplied with all legal blanks, deeds, mortgages, contracts and will endeavor to give my best service to one and all. adv.

The affirmative speakers, Ernestine Kingsolving and Peggy Davis, dwelt long upon the balmy air, moon light nights and general atmosphere of romance in the summer. Quotations from the poets were also in evidence. The negative speakers, Janine Miller and Margaret Harrison, gave the advantages of winter in outdoor sports, candy making and open fires. The judges, Miss Elder, Otha Wilson and Phyllis Perkins decided in favor of the affirmative.

Norma Talmadge
IN THE DRAMA
INCOMPARABLE
"The Eternal Flame"

Old France's gayest courts—the rendezvous for love, intrigue, clandestinity.

Happy hunting grounds for the gorgeous Duchesse de Langeais, a loyal wife until her husband wagered on her faith—then court-beauty, coquette, lost to love, stifling the Eternal Flame.

But her beauty was made to be besieged. A nation's idol demanded it. Yet still she would deny the right and power to love—until too late. Dieu! What a drama!

With art incomparable Norma Talmadge has carried her portrayal to sublimity. Who dares to bound or trammel it?

A mighty picture—a masterpiece if ever the screen achieved one—rich, ecstatic with the spirit of de Balzac's celebrated "Duchesse de Langeais." Adapted by Marion Fairfax. Directed by Frank Lloyd.

the state and federal governments. Before passing the bill the House struck from it a provision whereby the state highway department would have received fifty per cent of the tax and the counties fifty per cent. In adopting this amendment the House disregarded the views of the administration which urged that the state highway department be given one-half of the funds for the maintenance of the system of state and federal aid roads. The debate continued a greater part of the morning but those favoring the disbursement of the fund by the counties were able to muster seventy-three votes while those favoring the administration proposal could obtain only thirty.

The amendment giving all the gasoline tax to the counties was offered by Representative St. John, of Callman, while the opposition was led by Representative Ashcraft of Lauderdale, author of the bill, and Representative Alfred M. Tunstall, of Hale.

Much of the opposition to the proposal for the distribution of all the taxes to the counties resulted from the provision giving each county the same amount. Many members insisted that a small county should not receive the same amount as Jefferson, which pays into the automobile fund about one fourth of the amount obtained from automobile licenses and which consumes about one-fourth of the gasoline sold in Alabama. However, this argument and no other had any weight with the members who proposed that the money should be used by the county boards of revenue in the construction of the lateral roads.

Those who voted to give the counties all the money follows: Adams, Adecock, Allen, Ashcraft (Fayette), Blackwell, Bowen L. K., Boykin, Burton, Byars, Calloway, Cato, Cook, Cunningham, Dickinson, Dowdie, Dunwoody, Elliott, Fanning, Ferrill, Fite, Gaines, Glass, Glenn, Glover, Goodwyn Grove, Guy, Hall, Hampton, Hatter, Hawkins, Henley, Henson, Hodgson, Hornsby, Howard, Hubbard, Jones, Kilpatrick, Lee, LeMaistre, Letson, Long, Love, Luck, Melton, Moneyham, Moore, Moxley, Nichols, Norman, Odom, Parker, Pickens, Poole, Posey, Ringer, Russell, St. John, Sanders (Pike), Sessions, Smith (Clay), Smith (Creek), Smothers, Solie, Stewart (Calhoun), Thompson (Jackson), Tiller, Tysh, Wall, Walton, Ware, Wyatt—78.

Those who desired to give the state fifty per cent of the money follows: Mr. Speaker, Arrington, Ashcraft (Lauderdale), Beale, Bowen Lewis, Burns, Christian, Coleman, Culver, DeLoach, Embry, Forman, Glode, Graves, Hoxze, Jeter, Patterson, Powell, Rives, Rountree, Smith (Jefferson), Stewart (Bibb), Thompson (Etowah), Tunstall, Varner, Verrier, Walker, Mrs. Williams, Williams, Young—30.

Those not voting: McGowan, Rutledge, Sanders (Conecuh).
Addresses were made in support of Mr. St. John's amendment giving the counties all the gas tax by Mr. St. John, Parker, Cook, Glover, Burton, Long, Walton, Poole, Hatter, Solie. Those who made addresses in opposition to the proposal were Representatives Jeter (Lauderdale), Powell, Culver, Tunstall and Goode.

Reily May Retire; Health Is Cause

(Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—The early retirement from office of E. W. Mont Reily, whose administration as governor of Porto Rico has been attended by continual controversy in and out of the island, was forecast today in official quarters here.

Secretary Weeks said that the cause of the condition of Governor Reily's health "he may not stay in Porto Rico although it is still his intention to return there."

Former Sheriff J. V. May returned from Montgomery this morning where a meeting of ex-sheriffs of the state was held for two days closing yesterday. Mr. May said he was the only former sheriff present from this section. He said his organization would present a bill to the summer term of the legislature asking that sheriffs be allowed 60 cents a day for the first 20 prisoners boarded at the county jails; 50 cents a day for all over 20 and up to 30; and 40 cents a day for all over 30 prisoner-boarders.

Mr. May also stated that another measure was apt to become a law whereby the state prison inspector, would still be an inspector, but that the real power as to the feeding of prisoners and the management of the jail, would be vested in the probate judge of each county and in the boards of revenue of each county, with the grand juries retaining their present legal authority over the jails.

NEWS OF CAPITAL

(Associated Press.)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Feb. 1.—Every person driving an automobile or auto truck in the state of Alabama will be forced by law to come to a "dead" stop before crossing railroads or interurban crossings, if the proposed bill of Senator John Craft's, of Mobile, is passed by the two houses of the legislature.

"The greater part of the automobile accidents in the country are brought about by failure to stop at crossings," said Senator Craft.

The Mobile member pointed out that during the year 1921, 13,000 people lost their lives in automobile accidents in the United States, while 43,000 were seriously injured from the same cause.

"Careless driving caused practically every one of the accidents," declared Senator Craft, "and I believe that we can minimize the number in the state of Alabama by passing the law for cars to stop before crossing."

Senator Craft has also introduced a "companion" bill in the upper house, which provides for the teaching in the public schools for children to stop and look before crossing highways, streets and railroad crossings.

The Capital City seems in line to get a goodly share of the state's prize college games. Auburn appears here for three games, one with Georgia, one with the Philadelphia Athletics and the final with Georgia Tech.

Then the University of Alabama crimson takes on Georgia and Georgia Tech here and rumors have it that Birmingham-Southern will play the Phillies here also.

Sunday, April 8th is statewide Sunday School Day and everybody in Alabama is especially urged to attend one of the 30,000 Sabbath schools on that day, it is said.

The state will be divided into districts, according to Tom Elzey, secretary of the Alabama Sunday School Association, and every district will have a leader, over it to see that all of the schools are visited by speakers of the association.

"Need of Religious Education" will be the subject of all sermons on that day, it is said.

Mr. Elzey also points out that April 17-18 and 19 will be the dates of the state Sunday School convention to be held in Birmingham with some of the most prominent speakers in the country present.

The convention will mark the fortieth anniversary of the Alabama Sunday School Association. Headquarters for the convention will be the First Methodist Church and the Masonic Temple of Birmingham, and leaders of the work arranging for the meeting state that every district in the state will be represented.

J. V. May Returns From Montgomery

Former Sheriff J. V. May returned from Montgomery this morning where a meeting of ex-sheriffs of the state was held for two days closing yesterday. Mr. May said he was the only former sheriff present from this section. He said his organization would present a bill to the summer term of the legislature asking that sheriffs be allowed 60 cents a day for the first 20 prisoners boarded at the county jails; 50 cents a day for all over 20 and up to 30; and 40 cents a day for all over 30 prisoner-boarders.

Mr. May also stated that another measure was apt to become a law whereby the state prison inspector, would still be an inspector, but that the real power as to the feeding of prisoners and the management of the jail, would be vested in the probate judge of each county and in the boards of revenue of each county, with the grand juries retaining their present legal authority over the jails.

Secretary Weeks said that the cause of the condition of Governor Reily's health "he may not stay in Porto Rico although it is still his intention to return there."

WATCH PRESENTED TO DR. B. F. AUSTIN

The Morgan County Medical Society held a meeting at the county health unit this morning, which was presided over by Dr. O. M. Roan, Vice President, in the absence of the President, Dr. J. C. Bragg.

A feature of the meeting was the presentation of a beautiful gold watch and chain by the Society to Dr. B. F. Austin, retiring health officer, who left at noon today for Huntsville.

The inscription on the watch was as follows: "Presented to Dr. B. F. Austin—appreciation from the Doctors of Morgan County."

The presentation speech was made by Dr. Frank L. Chenault, who recounted the many valuable accomplishments of the county health unit under the able and active management of Dr. Austin. Dr. Chenault also paid a glowing personal tribute to the beloved physician and wished him God speed in his new undertakings in Madison county.

Under routine business Dr. W. P. Baugh was admitted as a member of the Society by unanimous vote. It was directed that a telegram be sent to the physicians committee in charge of the legislation touching the so-called chiropractor's bill, "urging vigilance" and containing a promise to send a committee for the Morgan County Medical Society to confer with them at an early date. A resolution was passed the sense of which was that chiropractors be not admitted to practice until after they had passed the regular state board medical examination.

Dr. H. C. McRee was elected secretary of the Society.

PLAN TO PRESENT WAR DEBT SCHEME

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Secretary Mellon, chairman of the American debt-funding commission, today called a meeting of the commission for late in the afternoon to make plans for presenting to congress the American debt-funding agreement accepted in London yesterday.

The call for the meeting followed official notification of the state department by the British embassy that the British cabinet had accepted favorably the American funding plan.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—It is authoritatively stated that the officials of the American terms for funding of the British government consider the British war debt to the United States to have been completely accomplished by yesterday's action of the British cabinet. While the words "in principle" were used in informing both the American ambassador in London and the British ambassador in Washington, of the cabinet action, this terminology, it is explained, merely permits the British ambassador to "continue the unimportant details of the negotiations."

Moulton News

MOULTON, Ala., Feb. 1.—(Special)—W. A. Moles, Collector of Vital Statistics for Moulton precinct, Lawrence county has just completed his report of births and deaths for the year 1922; births for the year were 211 as compared with 225 in 1921 and 206 in 1920; deaths for the past year were 72 as compared with 54 and 81 for the years 1921 and 1920 respectively. He reports that for the present month the death rate appears unusually high due doubtless in part to complications arising from the recent epidemic of flu.

Tom Burch, a highly respected citizen of near Landersville, eight miles west of Moulton was buried at the Landersville cemetery yesterday. For almost all of the seventy years of his life he had lived at the home where he passed away. He was born in south Alabama and came to this county with his parents when he was two years of age, he was a member of the Church of Christ and lived true to his faith.

He leaves a wife, and five sons and six daughters; his sons are Dr. Nat Burch, of Georgia, E. O. Burch, member of the county board of education, Travis Burch of Florence, John T. Burch, a teacher in the county and Walter Burch who has been with his father during his illness for the past several months. He also has been a teacher in the county. Two daughters are Mrs. Lula Fennell, of Mount Hope; Mrs. Marlin Craig, near Landersville and Miss Mamie Burch, a teacher in the county. A large number of friends and relatives attended funeral services.

A very sad accident occurred at the Steadman sawmill out about five miles northwest of Moulton late Monday afternoon when the boiler burst and instantly killed Jonathan Steadman, the sole armed fireman. There were at the time the full range of water in the boiler and steam had escaped so that it had been difficult to determine the cause of the explosion. Steadman and his brother were near the engine and as they dodged to escape the flying parts he was struck in the back of the head, death instantly resulting. For twenty years Mr. Steadman had fired an engine, more or less frequently and was considered a very cautious fireman. He was also a good farmer, he leaves a wife and several small children.

Pony's Leg Broken By An Automobile

Albert Blackwell, fifteen years old, is heart broken, according to statement of his father, A. S. Blackwell, because of the death of his pet pony. Veterinarians found it necessary to take the life of the highly valued animal because while the pony was standing on Moulton Street, East, near the D. L. Blackwell transfer building, in the care of Albert Blackwell, an automobile struck the animal breaking its right hind leg.

The limb was so completely crushed that recovery was judged impossible consequently the pony was poisoned with some gentle acting potion and put to sleep forever.
